If you're looking to make a serious style statement in your home, the Flamingo Rug by Serena Confalonieri is sure to enhance any drab space. The botanically abstract home accessory features an organic shape that is enriched with an abundance of bold floral imagery.

The colorful and ornate home accessory is a great statement piece for an all-white interior or a rich addition to an eclectically decorated room. Inspired by the beauty of nature, the Flamingo Rug by Serena Confalonieri also pays homage to the art of 15th century Nordic painting.

Designed for home retailer Nodus, this home carpet accessory highlights oversized florals, vibrant color hues and a non linear shape that is organically opulent and decorative when displayed within one's home.
