Nodus At Salone Del Mobile

Barber Wire by Studio Job

During the Salone del Mobile, Il Piccolo will present the second Nodus collection consisting of nine new rugs, hand knotted by experienced artisans from all over the world, envisioned by contemporary designers.

After the presentation of sixty rugs for the first 2009 collection, this year Nodus decided to focus on just nine rugs created by five designers: Fernando and Humberto Campana, Paolo Cappello, Sofie Lachaert and Luc D'Hanis, Studio Job, Matteo Ragni.

Cushions adorn one of the rugs, while rag dolls adorn another. Besides wool and silk unusual materials like hemp, hollow linen and banana silk fibre have been used. Ancient rug knotting techniques are rediscovered and emphasized: the free woofs of the Persian sumak, the woolen crewel embroideries, the soft curves of the Indian chain-stitch and the original Turkish kilim.

Besides manufacturers from Turkey, Turkmenistan, Nepal, India, Pakistan and China, craftsmen from Iran participated in this year's edition as well.
